
Organisational Structure

Head

Univ.-Prof. Dr. Erich Thöni, University of Innsbruck, Institute for Public Finance and Public Economics (Head), Universitätsstraße 15/4, 6020 Innsbruck, Austria

Members:

Members delegated by government organisations, scientific members (representatives of universities and external research institutions), members from the field of development cooperation and international collaboration of science and research, and other members.

Decision level:

During the board meetings, which take place in intervals of three to four months, the members decide on scientifically reviewed projects and on the planning of activities.

Team:

The KEF-team consists of a coordinator, a team assistant and an assistant in charge of information-management and web-applications, as well as a changing number of project assistants.